FRISCO POLICE ARREST JUVENILE FOR THREAT

FRISCO, TX – Frisco Police Officers arrested a juvenile at Centennial High School for making a threat that was substantiated through investigation. The investigation revealed that he made a specific threat that potentially jeopardized the safety of the school environment. The threat was made via twitter.

It's unknown whether the student had the means to carry out the threat; however, the alarm he caused school officials, as well as the public was sufficient to meet the elements of the offense.

The Frisco Police Department takes all threats seriously and investigates those threats thoroughly to ensure the safety of all involved.

We have no additional information to release at this time. We will not be available for interviews regarding this case.
